

Authors are instructed to mention about process of informed consent in the case of human participants involved in the research. In the case of children above 7 years, informed consent of parents as well as assent of the children should be mentioned.